For reasonable accommodation under the ADA, an employee has a disability if he or she has an impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities or a record of such an impairment. The following questions may help determine whether an employee has a disability:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Does the employee have a physical or mental impairment?</th>
<th>Yes ☐</th>
<th>No ☐</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

If yes, what is the impairment or the nature of the impairment? Please limit your answer to basic information, there is no need for dx or genetic information to be disclosed.

Answer the following question based on what limitations the employee has when his or her condition is in an active state and what limitations the employee would have if no mitigating measures were used. Mitigating measures include things such as medication, medical supplies, equipment, hearing aids, mobility devices, the use of assistive technology, reasonable accommodations or auxiliary aids or services, prosthetics, learned behavioral or adaptive neurological modifications, psychotherapy, behavioral therapy, and physical therapy. Mitigating measures do not include ordinary eyeglasses or contact lenses.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Does the impairment substantially limit a major life activity as compared to most people in the general population?</th>
<th>Yes ☐</th>
<th>No ☐</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Note: Does not need to significantly or severely restrict to meet this standard. It may be useful in appropriate cases to consider the condition under which the individual performs the major life activity; the manner in which the individual performs the major life activity; and/or the duration of time it takes the individual to perform the major life activity, or for which the individual can perform the major life activity.

B. Questions to help determine whether an accommodation is needed.

An employee with a disability is entitled to an accommodation only when the accommodation is needed because of the disability. The following questions may help determine whether the requested accommodation is needed because of the disability:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Question</th>
<th>Availability</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>What limitation(s) is interfering with job performance or accessing a benefit of employment?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What job function(s) or benefits of employment is the employee having trouble performing or accessing because of the limitation(s)?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How does the employee’s limitation(s) interfere with his/her ability to perform the job function(s) or access a benefit of employment?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

C. Questions to help determine effective accommodation options.

If an employee has a disability and needs an accommodation because of the disability, the employer must provide a reasonable accommodation, unless the accommodation poses an undue hardship. The following questions may help determine effective accommodations:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Question</th>
<th>Availability</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Do you have any suggestions regarding possible accommodations to improve job performance?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If so, what are they?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Please provide specifics regarding the use or application of the accommodation (how often used (ie, # of times/day, length of time, etc.)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td></td>
